

Driving Success Together: Partnering for a Brighter Future

Our commitment to delivering exceptional service and support customers in demanding industries. With professional expertise and dedication, we are confident in providing reliable, efficient, and high-quality repair services that ensure the optimal performance the equipment in mining operations.

At Multi Traktor Perkasa, we specialize in expert remanufacturing services for Allison transmissions, delivering quality and reliability. With years of experience and a commitment to precision, we breathe new life into your transmissions, ensuring peak performance and durability. Whether for heavy-duty machinery or commercial vehicles, trust us to provide cost-effective, eco-friendly solutions that keep your operations running smoothly.

Choose Multi Traktor Perkasa—where innovation meets excellence in transmission remanufacturing. Together, we aim to strengthen our presence in the mining industry and support our customers in achieving their operational goals.

Built Strong, Trusted Service

MTP